From 1 January 2021, no one can judge unless they meet the new Level 1 requirements.

Requirements to meet this level

- Minimum of 5 years proven interest in Pedigree dogs
- Attend a Requirement of a Dog Show Judge seminar (but not mandatory to take and pass examination)
- Attend a Conformation and Movement Seminar
- Complete a minimum of 2 stewarding Appointments

Eligibility to judge

Up to 3 classes (4 if one is a Puppy class) or 5 (6 if one is Puppy class) for Stud Book Band E breeds for any breed at Limited or Open Shows

I confirm I meet the requirements for the Judge’s Education programme (JEP) Level 1 or above Yes / No

IMPORTANT: Applying to be included on the Joint Judges List means you agree not to place, at any show, a blue dog purporting to be a Weimaraner. The Weimaraner Breed Standard is very clear

“The only correct colour is grey. Silver grey preferable. Shades of mouse or roe grey are acceptable; blending to lighter shade on head and ears. Dark eel stripe frequently occurs along back. Whole coat gives an appearance of metallic sheen. Small white mark permissible on chest. White spots resulting from injuries not penalised. Any other colour, including blue, is highly undesirable.”

Any other coat colour is considered ‘Non-Breed Standard’ colour and should be considered a serious fault.

Any judge on the Joint Judging List who is found to have placed a blue dog at a show, will be removed from the list with immediate effect.

Declaration

I have read the above statement regarding colour Yes / No

I declare that the information provided is a true and accurate record of my judging experience to date
